

Sunday, February 12th, 2012 at 2 p.m.

Gunston Hall's 5th Annual Seeds of Independence Program explores a small antebellum settlement of free blacks clustered along the "Neck Road," now known as Harley Road, on Mason's Neck.

Film Premiere

"Between the Lines: Free Blacks Living on Mason's Neck during the Civil War"

Guest Speaker

"On Uneven Ground: Finding Freedom in the Civil War Chesapeake"
Kym S. Rice Director, Museum Studies Program George Washington University

Reception to Follow

Featuring Gladys Bushrod's Sweet Potato Pie

Tour George Mason's Home Gunston Hall

Suggested Donation:

Adults $9

Seniors $8

6 – 18 years $5

Sponsored by the Kirkpatrick family Fund